Mrs Crisp's notice

Welcome back to the new half term. Spring is certainly in the air, the days are getting brighter and longer and the daffodils are blooming. As the snowdrops and crocuses are pushing through the soil, we can finally put those dark dismal days behind us and look forward to the warmer seasons.

I am delighted to share that Miss Rollason welcomed her daughter into the world on Tuesday evening and is now the proud mummy to baby Stevie Wren, who weighed 8lb 5oz. Huge congratulations to the new parents; we are overjoyed for her as she begins this exciting new chapter of parenthood. I'm sure you will join me and the entire staff in sending our warmest congratulations and best wishes to the family.

The annual Scholastic book fair is running for the next three evenings, straight after school. Please come and have a look at what is on offer. A percentage of the proceeds come to school to enable us to replenish our library so we appreciate any purchases made.

Have a wonderful weekend

God bless

Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
Amen
