Mrs Crisp's notice

As always, Mrs Poole and the school photographer worked their magic yesterday to ensure that all photographs were taken expertly and swiftly. This resulted in beautiful images being captured of your precious children at this moment; something that you will cherish forever, especially when they are all grown up.

The school book fair arrived yesterday and is here until Tuesday. Please do take the time to come and have a look. According to Walt Disney, "There is more treasure in books than in all the pirate's loot on Treasure Island." Reading definitely feeds the soul and as this year is the year of reading, what better pastime to have.

Earlier in the week I sent an email regarding some extra online learning resources available to children who are eligible for pupil premium. Unfortunately this opportunity is not open to everyone, but I urge those parents who are eligible to sign up. The materials look good and can help support your child's learning.

The school nurse drop in session is on Wednesday morning. Please come along if you have any health questions or concerns that you would like to discuss, confidentially.

Enjoy the weekend ahead.

God bless

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, grant me the courage to change what can be changed, the peace to accept the things that cannot be changed, and the wisdom to know the difference.

Amen.
