Mrs Crisp's notice

The term is flying by extremely quickly and we are edging ever closer towards the Christmas period. Our PTA Christmas Fair is taking place, in school, from 3.30 - 5.30pm, this Thursday.

Please come along to support the school; you are sure to have lots of festive fun.

Next Friday is our Blessing of the Advent Wreath. All are welcome to attend this service, at 2.45pm, in the school hall, which then leads into our weekly celebration assembly.

As I mentioned previously, we need readers and musicians to help us celebrate our annual Carols and Coffee which is taking place on the last day of term, 19th December. We have had very few volunteers so far and are in need of many more. Please get in touch if you would be happy to offer your services. We need you!

Saving the best news until last, I am delighted to share that Mrs Fischer, our Reception teacher, is expecting her first baby in the Spring! We are all incredibly excited for her and Mr Fischer as they prepare for this wonderful new chapter. Another new life to welcome into our St Simon's family, we couldn't be happier for them both. Please join us in wishing Mrs Fischer a healthy and happy rest of her pregnancy.

Enjoy the weekend ahead.

God bless

Prayer

Christ Jesus, King of the Universe, You came into the world to bear witness to the truth and to establish the reign of God among us. As we celebrate your royal dominion, we humbly acclaim you as the Lord of all creation.

We adore you, true King, enthroned not in earthly splendor, but on the Cross, where your sacrifice redeemed us. Your crown is of thorns, and your scepter is justice and love. May your reign dwell in our hearts, in our homes, and in our nation.

Grant us the grace to recognise your voice and to follow you, the Good Shepherd, so that we may live as faithful subjects of your Kingdom. Help us to strive for that eternal dwelling, where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Amen.
